Matter of Having Proper Exhibit at Jamestown Exposition Exciting Much Interest.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., February 25,-PETERSBURG, VA., February 25.—
James T. Powell, a well known tailor of this city, committed suicide some in the last night by inhaling gas through the rubber tube of a gas stove in the rear room of his workshop, on Bollingbrook Street, where his body was found this morning, seated in a chair, with his feet on a trunk, and the tube fastened to the vest in such a way that the gas would escape in his face. After examining the body the coroner stated that death took place six hours or more before the finding of the body. All attendant circumstances indicate that the suicide was of a most deliberate kind, as the unfortunate man had only a short time before expressed the kind, as the unfortunate man had only a short time before expressed the opinion to several people at his wife's boarding-house that asphyxiation was the easiest form of death; but the remark was made in general conversation, and no intimation was given by Mr. Powell that he intended to take his own life. General despondency and ill health are the supposed reasons for the act. He was between forty-live and fifty years of age, and is survived by his wife, who, before her marriage, was Miss Lucy Builfant.

TREASURER ILL.

TREASURER ILL.

Continued Failing Health May Force Mr. Ewing Out of Race.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREEN BAY, VA., February 25.—
The political pot is very quiet in Prince Edward up to this time regarding the election of county officers this fall, but, no doubt, will begin to simmer as little later. Hon, John J. Owen, member of the House of Delegates from this county, will have no opposition, it is thought, H he consents to accept the nomination. Mr. Owen has served in the Legislature from this county for ten years, and has accomplished much good for his county. There will probably be several candidates for the office of county. There will probably be several candidates for the office of county. There will probably be several candidates for the office of county. There will probably he several candidates for the office of county treasurer, which has been filled by Mr. W. H. Ewing for twelve years, but owing to Mr. Ewing's failing health, it is not thought he will consent to run. If it were not for this fact, he would not have opposition, as he has been and is now the most popular treasurer Prince Edward has ever had. He continues ill, however, at his home, not far from this place. Mr. T. H. Bruce, one of the county's most prosperous farmers and at present deputy treasurer, is mentioned prominently as entering the race should Mr. Ewing decline. He will be able to put up a good fight for the office.

He and Mr. Russell Address Burkeville School.

[Special to The Times-Dispech.]
BURKEVILLE, VA., February 25.—
The Longvear High School pupils observed Washington's Birthday in a way pleasing to themselves and the citizons of Burkeville. At 8 o'clock the audience assembled in the new Masonic Hall, where they found the publis already ence assembled in the new Masonic Hall, where they found the pupils already seated on the stage. The exercises opened with "America," sung by the school. This was followed by a rectitation by Miss Helen campbell, one of the High School pupils after which the school sang "Columbia," Then little Miss Elizabeth Bostick recited in a most "fetching," style. These pleasant pre-liminaries being over, Judge Mann, one of the speakers of the evening, gave a short talk on Washington in his usual happy mannor. The other gentleman whom the audience had the pleasure of hearing was Mr. Russell, the State expansion for this district. Unlike Judge Mann, he was a stranger to his audience, but he left upon the people a deep impression of his practical, forceful personality,

Do You Contemplate Matrimony?

Now listen! Where we FULLY expected to move into our magnificent new store at Adams and Broad Streets, THIS WEEK, we were disappointed because of the slowness in finishing the building. Our experience has proven that married people are the most successful, in fact, were it not for married people we wouldn't do any business; therefore, we prize the sale of a bridal suit most highly. You know we're forced to move—forced to sell, and our prices have been marked down regardless of cost. Now, to come to the point—we will be glad to sell you at our greatly reduced prices, under the following conditions: You to pay from a quarter to a half cash and the balance in easy weekly or monthly instalments, and, if necessary, we can leave a limited number of purchases in our present quarters for some little time because the tenant who succeeds us at our present stand will use only the first three floors for his business.

This offer is a cinch for those who are about to start housekeeping. Go to other stores and get prices before you come here to purchase—get posted—that's the best way, because then you and we will both be best satisfied.
